Learn to fly fish in one day

The Twin Tiers Five Rivers chapter of the FFF is sponsoring a high-quality "introduction to fly fishing" class, open to adults and youth 12 and over. The class will provide non-fly fishers with the basic knowledge and skills to get started, and will put novice and 'out of practice' fly fishers on a fast track to greater enjoyment and success on the stream.

Classroom topics include fly fishing equipment, types of flies, common stream insects, knots, reading the water, fishing dry flies, streamers, and nymphs, and catching and releasing fish. Students will develop their fly casting skills through several practice sessions throughout the day.

Students can bring and learn on their own equipment (help available for setup, as needed.) Equipment can be provided for those who request it in advance.

Taught by these nationally known instructors

Dave Rothrock is an Orvis Endorsed guide from Jersey Shore, PA, and a FFF Certified Casting Instructor. Dave has competed in national fly fishing championships, and has written for Fly Fisherman and the Pennsylvania Angler magazines.

Joe Cambridge is a professor of English and Fly Fishing at Tompkins Cortland Community College. Joe holds a wealth of knowledge about fly fishing techniques effective in the Finger Lakes area. He is a regular contributor to Fly Fisherman magazine.

Carol Farkas teaches fly-fishing at Tompkins Cortland Community College, Bass Pro Shops, an Adirondack club, and TU and FFF events. She is a graduate of Wells College and a published poet.

The class fee is $75 for adults, $60 youth (12-18) accompanied by a paying adult; $10 discount for FFF TTFR members. Lunch and refreshments provided.

Prepaid registration is required by March 27, 2009. Class size is limited, so please call soon:
